AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

OLYMPIA—"Cry of the Silph." "The Grand Opera House—Herrmann.
FOUR—"Monte Cristo."

The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 8 a. m. to-day, for Missouri are: Light showers, preceded by fair weather in southeastern portions; cooler on Thursday; winds shifting to westerly.

The pen of the City Treasurer seems to be the quill of a goose.

Every citizen of St. Louis can be counted on the right side in the fight for honest and efficient street sprinkling.

CITY TREASURER FORESTEL has proved that a pen is mightier than a blunderbuss.
One stroke of his pen is fatal to a good bid for public work.

The advantages of Forest Park will not be lost to the poor children this summer.
The Post-Dispatch Forest Park Mission will provide means for little ones to revel in the luxury of pure air, shade, grass and flowers.

We are glad to hear that the sprinkling inspectors and contractors cannot any longer throw dust in the eyes of Street Commissioner BURNETT. The contractors will find it more profitable in the end to throw water on the dust.

The first proposal to establish the Post-Dispatch Forest Park Mission brought liberal responses. Two contributions, one of $100 and another of $25, have been received. They give assurance that the poor children will not lack generous friends.

BEFORE CITY TREASURER FORESTEL assumed his office the chief concern of the Board of Public Improvements was to get good bids; now, however, the most important consideration is to get the receipts of deposits properly made out in the Treasurer's office.

It begins to look as if the Mayor will have to shut himself up in a safe and take the combination with him to get rid of the troublesome office-seekers at the City Hall. The people of the city would be better satisfied if he would look the office-seekers in and throw the combination away.

The Globe-Democrat refers to a bill to prevent the corrupt use of money in elections now pending in the Massachusetts Legislature and declares that it should pass. A similar bill is before the Missouri Legislature and Missourians are much more deeply interested in the passage of the Missouri than the Massachusetts bill.

"The other fellow" evidently succeeded in "fixing" Mr. NEAL. The original Harrison man from Missouri has withdrawn from the contest for the District Attorneyship at Kansas City in favor of Mr. KIMBALL. The compensation of Mr.
NEAL for being "fixed," and of "the other fellow" for doing the "fixing," will doubtless appear later.

DISTON, the sawmaker who is enabled by the tariff to sell his goods 20 per cent higher on this side of the Rio Grande than he charges buyers on the Mexican side, was a large contributor to the corruption fund that carried New York for HARRI-SON. He now asks to be reimbursed with the appointment of a Pennsylvania lawyer named by him for United States District Judge in Florida, where DISTON's disputed title to a large body of land is in litigation.

ST. LOUISANS are offered opportunities to enjoy at Music Hall this week opera productions which have not been surpassed in strength of musical forces, completeness of stage-mounting and artistic value. The directors of the Exposition have not spared labor nor expense, and have undertaken considerable risk to secure the Metropolitan Opera Co. for this engagement, and their confidence in the taste and liberality of the people of this city should not be disappointed.

The Congressional Committee of the Second Missouri District has sat in judgment on Office Broker BURNETT, and after a hearing lasting over his office has been found guilty.

against the spoils system and the disgregeful scramble for offices, which are the twin causes of office-brokerage and political corruption in general. There are worse things chargeable to the victorious Republican party than the retelling of petty offices in rural districts.

PESTIFEROUS OFFICE FILES.

Mayor NOONAN's determination to get rid of the office-seekers who make life a burden to him and seriously interfere with the performance of his duties is a move in the right direction. He has the sympathy and cordial support of all good citizens in his efforts.

The Mayor's experience is common to all officials in this country who have patronage at their disposal. There is not an office from the President's down to the lowest with a clerkship, a portership or a messengership attached to it which is not infested by a swarm of buzzing flies. And the office-seeking flies are the most pestiferous, persistent and bothersome of all. They are thorough pests and nuisances. They are blots on the public service, and block to public business. They wear out the lives of public officers. The center for them at present is Washington, where they have become a national nuisance and a national disgrace. Politics is becoming putrid under these baleful influences.

The worst effect of this result of the spoils system is not so much the spectacle as the demoralization of human nature and manhood which it represents and which makes it possible. Thousands of men with able bodies and minds scramble over miserable little offices in which there is small compensation, no hope of promotion and no spur to ambition. There is about one office to every hundred applicants and the scramble, therefore, represents a tremendous waste of time, ability and energy which should be put to productive uses. The labor expended in office-seeking would make the office-seekers independent if applied to professional, trade or manufacturing activity.

The country has had enough of it. Every movement, legislative or executive, which tends to abolish and discourage it is in accord with popular sentiment. It is also in the direction of political decency and national dignity.

The corrupt practices at elections bill pending in the State Legislature would make a splendid companion piece of legislation to the electoral reform bill just passed. The measure guards against fraud and bribery at the polls and requires candidates and committees to file with the Secretary of State sworn statements of campaign expenditures. With these two laws on the statute books elections in Missouri would have the strongest possible safeguards thrown around them. There would be reasonable hope of securing absolute honesty in elections.

A NATURALIZATION MILL

HOW CITIZENS WERE MADE AT THE FOUR COURTS LAST FALL.

A Line of Investigation That May Be Followed by the Federal Grand Jury in Hoping to Light the Election Frauds.
Sample List of Applicants for Whom Witnesses Testified.

The Federal Grand Jury, obedient to the instructions of Judge Thayer, is preparing for an investigation into the November election frauds. A session was held this morning to dispose of some preliminary business, before inaugurating the investigation, which will occupy the entire attention of the body when it is once entered upon.

As suggested by Judge Thayer the jury will first take up the inquiry into the methods of securing naturalization papers for the 3,729 persons, who secured citizenship within forty-five days last fall. In regard to this feature of the election frauds the District Attorney's office is disposed to dispute the charge of the exposure of the Post-Dispatch.
The office even proposes to summon attaches of the Post-Dispatch before the Grand Jury, to answer to the charge of making false statements to the jury.

The Federal Grand Jury, obedient to the instructions of Judge Thayer, is preparing for an investigation into the November election
frauds. A session was held this morning
to dispose of some preliminary
business, before inaugurating the investigation, which will occupy the entire attention
of the body when it is once entered upon.

As suggested by Judge Thayer
the jury will first take up the
inquiry into the methods of securing
naturalization papers for the 3,729 persons,
who secured citizenship within forty-five days last fall. In regard to this feature of the election frauds the District Attorney's office is disposed to dispute the charge of the exposure of the Post-Dispatch.
The office even proposes to summon attache-
s of the Post-Dispatch before the Grand Jury,
to answer to the charge of making false
statements to the jury.

REVEALED NO NEW FACT

THE RESULT OF THE CROSS-EXAMINATION OF MR. PARNELL.

An Instructive Coincidence—The Meeting Between Parnell and Editor O'Brien—Davitt's Evidence—The French Expedition—Conflict Between the Military and Strikers in Germany—Killed by a Fugitive—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch, LONDON, May 8.—The cross-examination of Mr. Parnell has revealed no new fact. When Mr. Parnell first became a member of Parliament the Irish Parliamentary party was under Mr. Butt, a clever and brilliant man, who was neither trusted nor worthy of trust. The majority of the members of Parliament who followed him were more anxious for office than for home rule. Outside of Parliament the Irish, both in Ireland and America, distrusted the Parliamentary party and regarded Parnell as the only means to secure for Ireland her just rights. Ireland was home to the secret societies. Mr. Parnell perceived that if Parliamentary action was to replace revolutionary tactics, Parnell must be conducted upon very different lines from those adopted before. By his determined energy he forced Ireland to the front of the secret societies. He made the Irish question the parliamentary question of the day. Irishmen who did not share his views, nor did he inquire what had been the views of any individual. But he invited them all to join him, urged all to be parliamentarians, much as the apostles called to the Jews and Samaritans to become Christians. As the party grew, both Parnell and the secret societies lost their hold upon the Irish people, until at length the Irish were banded together in one great Parliamentary party. Mr. Parnell's mode of winning adherents was to assure all that if they only supported him in his parliamentary action home rule must eventually be won; and so long as the Irish believed that he would win it for them, so long will he retain his power. His great glory is that he has substituted Parliamentary tactics for the outrages and revolutionary tactics that were his before he came to the fore. Of course, in the Irish party, as in every party, there are men who either dubiously or deliberately remain outside of their occupation is gone. So long as their countrymen believe, many of them see themselves obliged to accept Parnell's gospel because it is popular. Some of them still remain obstinate. Mr. Parnell has not the even tenor of his way, neither ruling the former out of the fold nor shutting the gate against the latter who persist in remaining outside. To blame him for this is to blame him for being a human.

AN INSTRUCTIVE COINCIDENCE.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch, LONDON, May 8.—It is an instructive coincidence that the cross-examination of Mr. Parnell yesterday was followed by his election as honorary member of the National League Club of London, and the final decision of Edinburgh Town Council to present him with the freedom of the City of Edinburgh. The Tories at Edinburgh made much of his re-election, and urged the postponement of the question till the end of the commission. This was defeated. It is to be noted also that yesterday Mrs. Gladstone, who is a constant visitor at the Commission Court, conversed with Parnell during the lunch interval. Another very striking scene was the entry of O'Brien, Farnell rushed up and warmly shook hands with him, and O'Brien's eyes moistened as he congratulated Parnell on his conduct in the witness box. Farnell apologized for having had to throw O'Brien out of the room, with a smile, that he only hoped he would be able to bear his transgressions half as gracefully. The conversation was only audible to those who happened to be close, but the affectionate meeting between the two comrades made an impression on all the court. O'Brien and Harrington attended court in custody of wardens, and were taken to the Pentonville and Holland prison. There is talk of a popular demonstration to escort them each day.

DAVITT'S EVIDENCE. The most interesting evidence after Parnell's will be Davitt's, whose knowledge of every detail has materially helped Russell and Farnell throughout the case. His interest will give very full and frank evidence, in particular he will, I believe, stick up for Patrick Ford.

DILKE RECOVERED. Dilke is making a most interesting series of speeches in Gloucestershire, advocating radical views, but all the London papers boycott him. W. M. STANLEY.

THE FRENCH EXPEDITION.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch, PARIS, May 8.—Contrary to expectations, there was not a great crowd on the first ordinary day of the exposition, and the majority of those present seemed to be strangers. This indicates merely that the Parisians have sense enough to realize that the Parisians have all summer in which to see the show and that there is no good reason for hurrying before it is ready. It is certainly nowhere near ready yet. The best department at present is that of fine arts, representing the various countries, which are quite in shape. The American art section, which is situated up stairs, is, however, barred out by a wall which has been opened before Saturday. Mr. Rush C. Hawkins has been working like a beaver at the hands of the exposition officials, and there were many exhibits, like that of the Spanish artists for example, have been given big ground floor rooms, with wide margins of wall space for pictures and some hung high, the American collection can only be seen by the aid of space by utilizing every inch of wall.

CAUSE FOR COMPLAINT. The exhibition has less cause for complaint, and nobody would mind it much if the case were otherwise for, candidly speaking, it is not the most worthy showing. The exceptions are grouped together in the four corners of the open space in the center of our section. These are occupied by Tiffany, the Meridian Britannia Co., the Gorham Manufacturing Co. and Davis, Collamore & Co. of New York. Only the second and third have their exhibits yet in order, but Tiffany's show will be in many respects the most notable in the whole Exposition. Davis, Collamore & Co.'s exhibit attracts attention by reason of the collection of rock wood pottery from Cincinnati and still more by the wonderful show of cutglass from Hawkes, at Corning, N. Y. The products of the little village factory are marvels of the French glass-cutters and already are striking features of the exposition. These four corners, as I said, are really admirable. Of course, Edison's show is both unique and splendid, but the rest of the section would be inadequate if it were to exhibit more than the industries of a single town like Hartford. Perhaps when everything is arranged it will look better; certainly it is to be hoped so.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, May 8.—Jack Hickey, the pugilist, became involved in a dispute with a Cork "Jarvis" (Jaunting car driver) which ended in a fight. Hickey struck the driver a powerful blow in the face, breaking his jaw and inflicted other injuries, from the effects of which the driver died. Hickey was arrested, and remanded on a charge of manslaughter.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, May 8.—The strike among the miners in Westphalia is spreading. The military in the disturbed district has been reinforced.

A RUSSIAN CONSPIRACY.

A conflict has occurred between the strikers and the military at Essen. The soldiers fired upon the strikers, killing three men and wounding five others.

RUSSIA.

St. Petersburg, May 8.—The czar has sent a telegraphic message of condolence to the widow of Count Tolstoi. In his message the czar says that the successor of Count Tolstoi will be a man who is animated by the same principles that controlled the course of the late Minister of the Interior, and will continue his work.

CIRCUIT COURT CASES. A Batch of Decisions by Judge Withrow—Other Legal Matters.

Judge Withrow handed down his weekly batch of decisions this morning in cases taken under advisement by him during the week. He overruled a motion for a new trial in the $10,000 damage suit of August Hansen against the Missouri Cattle & Foundry Co. Hansen was a boy employed in the car foundry, and four years ago lost four fingers of his right hand. He claimed the machinery was defective. The case has been tried by jury three times. The court says the jury secondly rendered a verdict of $2,500, the third a verdict of $4,000. The defendants took no appeal. On the ground that the court instructed the jury wrongfully in including liability for medical services, the court says the case is not closed, and then decides that if the plaintiff, Hansen, can show that the machinery was defective, a new trial will be ordered; otherwise, sustained.

Among the other rulings of the court are the following: Savings Bank vs. H. M. Smith; defendant's motion to make petition more definite and certain overruled. Grady vs. O'Brien; defendant's motion to cross bill overruled. Harter et al. vs. Knott et al.; motion to strike out set off overruled. Wolf et al. vs. Harrington; motion to set aside judgment sustained. Smythe vs. Kane et al.; motion to make more definite and certain sustained. Bail vs. Jones; motion to set aside judgment sustained. Smythe vs. Kane et al.; motion for a new trial overruled.

REPORT JUDGE VALLIANT. The city of St. Louis, by the Hue & Loomis Ice & Transportation Co., won its suit in Judge Valliant Court this morning. An ordinance, No. 12,745, was passed in March, 1888, renting a section of the wharf at 7200, and no charge whatever to any vessel landing at that wharf. It is the case of the company violated its contract by not paying rent amounting to $1,120, and a forfeit of the penal bond was asked. The court, after hearing the case, rendered judgment for plaintiff for $9,000 penalty of bond and $200 damages.

OTHER CASES. A suit was begun in Judge Klein's court this morning by the American National Bank of Kansas City against the Fifth National Bank and Lon V. Stephens, receiver. The American National Bank filed a bill to enforce an order of the Fifth National Bank November 8, 1887, two days before the bank failed, and the Fifth National Bank made the receiver a party to the suit. The suit is now to recover the amount collected. Citizens' Loan Association vs. The Phoenix Insurance Co. of Brooklyn this morning for $200,000. The suit is for the recovery of a $200,000 policy on the Phoenix Insurance Co., which was destroyed by fire in January, 1888, and which was insured by the defendant. The St. Louis National Bank filed an attachment suit against Joseph L. Whitney this morning for $1,000, based on two notes.

HE FLED TO CHICAGO.

Irving W. Schell, the Manager of a Local Express and Messenger Company.

Irving W. Schell, the enterprising manager of the St. Louis Express & Messenger Co., has gone to Chicago to dwell. He finds more freedom, as it were, up there and the climate more agreeable to his health and welfare. Something in the neighborhood of $250 of the company's money accompanied him to that wicked city. Schell formerly worked for the Pacific Express Co. and Mr. H. A. Morahan, manager of that company, was so well pleased with his methods of transacting business that he made him manager of the St. Louis Express & Messenger Co. Schell is a man of about 35 years of age, and has been managing the business for about a year. He proved a remarkably competent man, and during the past year made the company a dividend of 40 per cent to the stockholders, whereas, heretofore it had never yielded them more than 10 per cent. Of course they were delighted with his work, and he was accordingly promoted. The first of the present month he disappeared, however, and it afterward developed that he had gone to Chicago and had taken with him about $250 of the company's money. He wrote a letter to the stockholders, explaining his disappearance, and gave the combination of the safe in the office which he alone knew. His relatives and parents in Quincy, Ill., are very respectable people and it is said they are making good the shortage. For this reason his employers refuse to make any statements concerning him. No doubt if he had remained here he would have been arrested as a thief, and he would have lost his money to make it good as they esteemed him very highly. The attempt has been made to affect his arrest and name will be how soon.

MISSING DR. CROGIN. New York Irish Nationalists Believe He Has Been Murdered.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, May 8.—Irish Nationalists of this city who know Dr. Crogin appear to be convinced that he was assassinated. Some say there is the barest possibility that he is a prisoner somewhere. The report that he is on his way to London to testify in defense of Parnell they pronounce absurd. The motive of his enemies to kill him was not, it is asserted, altogether on account of the fact that he was the custodian of a report showing that $125,000 of the funds subscribed for revolutionary purposes had been misappropriated. He was Alex Sullivan's most bitter opponent, and Sullivan's associates in Chicago, which had branches throughout the entire country. It is stated that at a meeting on Crogin's character were impeached by dictating himself, a resolution was presented practically sentencing Crogin to death. The resolution was defeated. Another resolution somewhat similar in tenor was defeated, and Crogin was declared a well-known Irish nationalist in Chicago, was furnished with the plot of the resolutions, and advised proceedings in court. The men who brought him the information were afraid to testify in public and the efforts to punish the authors of the resolution ended there.

CROGIN'S ATTACK ON SULLIVAN. Crogin in a recent issue of his newspaper, the Celtic-American, attacked Alex Sullivan for introducing Le Claron to membership in the Clan-na-Gael. This attack, coupled with other circumstances, widened the breach between the two factions, and it is asserted that Crogin's attack on Sullivan may have prompted some of his enemies to attempt his murder.

It is a most unfortunate affair," said he, "and there is no telling what its ultimate effect of it will be on Irish national organizations in this country. It is the first assassination of the kind—it is an assassination, and I believe it is—in the history of the Irish revolutionary movement. Crogin and some of his associates as lepers and outcasts, was also defeated. A motion to enjoin secrecy under oath in regard to the resolutions upon the penalty of death also failed. The resolution was defeated. Another resolution somewhat similar in tenor was defeated, and Crogin was declared a well-known Irish nationalist in Chicago, was furnished with the plot of the resolutions, and advised proceedings in court. The men who brought him the information were afraid to testify in public and the efforts to punish the authors of the resolution ended there.

A Reward Offered. CHICAGO, Ill., May 8.—It is reported that at a secret meeting of the friends of Dr. Crogin, held last night, it was resolved to offer a reward for the solution of the mystery surrounding his disappearance.

Harry Chase's Condition. Mr. Harry Chase, the artist, has left St. Louis Hospital and gone with his wife to his home in Tennessee. His health is excellent and the physicians have hope of his recovery on that account. ### WARRING SECTION FOREMEN.

Two Rival Benevolent Organizations Give Rise to Great Discord.

There is war in the camp of the railway section foremen, all arising out of two hostile mutual benefit and insurance organizations. One, the first, was organized at Council Bluffs, Ia., in November, 1886, and during 1887 new members numbering over fifteen hundred were added to the society. M. McIntire is elected as Grand Foreman, but in the month of February, 1887, he was deposed and expelled. He at once set about forming a new organization, and in the fall of 1887 a meeting was held at Chicago, at which a charter was issued, and authority for forming State organizations deposited to various members. The task of instituting a Missouri Lodge was entrusted to Charles Bailey, and McIntire was placed at the head of the order. James Sweeney, Joseph Bailey and Charles Roan were elected members of the Missouri directory and a charter issued. These three men, it is said, were greatly dissatisfied with the manner in which affairs were managed and threatened to make public what they had discovered since entering the directory. For this offense, it is alleged, McIntire insisted upon their expulsion from the order, and at a called meeting of the board of managers this was done. The three expelled directors are highly indignant, and declare that the action taken is entirely unjustifiable. All three are employed by the bridge and tunnel company. The organization is said to be small in numbers, and the war, while it may be fierce, cannot become widely extended.

ALTON, ILL.

The Real Estate Boom—G. A. R. Decoration Day Exercises.

Stephen Hastings, aged 38 years, and a native of this city, died at the home of his father on Alton and Eighth streets yesterday, after an illness of several weeks.

The real estate business in Alton is very lively, numerous sales and transfers taking place daily. The prices of all kinds of property are steadily increasing. The demand for tenement houses cannot be met by the agents, although quite a number are being erected in different parts of the city.

J. A. Francis and Louis Reeves were united in marriage last night, by Rev. W. C. Logan, at their new home on Upper State street.

Arrangements are being made to observe Decoration Day here. Alton G. A. R. Post will have charge of the exercises, and proposed to have a grand procession, followed by a service at the Episcopal Church. Archdeacon Taylor will conduct the religious exercises.

THE ELEVATOR CONSOLIDATION.

Practically It Has Been Effected, But There Is Work to Do Yet. The elevator consolidation has not been effected, but one step more and it will be. The whole thing is now waiting the agreement of one little matter on which there is a difference. Just what it is those who are interested do not care to say, but it is generally understood, and the information from "the inside" bears out the general understanding, that it is a minor matter which certainly will be adjusted, the only question which is now standing in the way being how it shall be done. There is no longer any doubt about the consolidation. It is sure to come, unless some unforeseen eruption occurs, but that is not likely, for probably the only reason the elevator men have not reached an agreement before now is that they all feel that they have plenty of time to act in before the season opens, and they are occupied at that time in discussing little matters that would not be considered for a moment if there was any press of time.

ROBT. TERRY EXPELLED. Tuscan Lodge, Masons, Rids Itself of the Insurance Fraud.

Tuscan Lodge, A. F. and A. M., last night expelled Robert Terry, who was convicted in the Criminal Court of attempting to fraud the United States Benevolent Fraternity. He secured the initiation of an able bodied man in the latter order under the name of Charles Zieff, when the real Zieff died of consumption. After the death of Zieff an attempt was made by a co-conspirator of Zieff's to secure the insurance money, but the plan had miscarried and its details were public property. Previous to this conspiracy Terry stood high in the U. S. B. F., in the American Legion of Honor and was a Knight Templar. He was sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary, and is now awaiting a decision on an application for a new trial.

A New Fast Train to New York. On May 12th the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will put on an additional fast train to New York leaving St. Louis via the Ohio and Mississippi Railway at 8:05 p. m. daily, and arriving in New York at 9:30 central time the second morning. Pullman vestibule buffet sleeping cars of the latest pattern go through with this train St. Louis to New York without change.

Whisky-Makers' Trouble. The efforts of the local liquor dealers to establish a co-operative distillery at Eleventh street and Cass avenue have been thwarted by the establishment of a rectifying-house on the same block. Under this law a distillery cannot be operated within 500 feet of a rectifying house. The rectifiers' license expired May 1, and a fight to prevent a renewal is being made by the local dealers, who claim the rectifier is an agent of the Whisky Trust.

A "Dead" Man Revived. Thomas Delaney of 2514 St. Louis avenue was pronounced dead Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock by those who were watching at his bedside. An undertaker was summoned and embalmed the body, but was delayed until evening. When he reached Mr. Delaney's house he found the supposed dead man had revived. Mr. Delaney has been suffering from a long illness, and is now much better.

$12, $13.50 and $15 SUITS AT $8.00. The vast amount of "hurrah" and h— (we had almost said humbag) adopted by some clothiers to work off their unsalable merchandise clouds the judgment of many buyers who, thinking they are getting something for nothing, pay their good money for very poor stuff at a very high price. Now if WE, the largest clothing manufacturers in the world, can not make low prices and give good honest values, who can?

To illustrate this, WE PLACE ON SALE TO-DAY

500 SUITS,

IN STYLISH PLAIDS AND STRIPES, of fashionable cut, and well-made and trimmed, worth $12.00, $13.50 and $15 00, and have marked the whole line

$8.00 Per Suit.

See samples in our show-windows. If we were in the "hurrah" business we should say, "Don't miss this, the grandest opportunity of the age, to get an elegant suit for a song," but as we are doing a very square, legitimate business, we simply say: If you wish a very good suit for very little money, come and look at these.

THE SOUTHERN CROPS.
Favorable Opening of the Season Within the Memphis District. MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 8.—The regular monthly crop report issued to-day by Hill, Fontaine & Co., says: "The season for 1889 opens favorably for the cotton and corn crops within the Memphis District, which embraces West Tennessee, North Mississippi, North Arkansas and North Alabama. Planting interests throughout the district are fully ten days earlier than last year and the weather in the main has been favorable. Cotton has nearly all been planted and the outlook this early in the season is favorable, although complaint is made of the effect of cool nights which have prevailed since the 3d of May, and which in some localities affected the plant and retarded its growth. Warmer weather has succeeded the low temperatures of the past week and a vigorous growth of the plant can now be reasonably anticipated. There is an increased acreage reported planted in cotton within the district of 44 per cent. Alabama reports the largest increase, leading off with 5 per cent, while Mississippi reports the smallest, being only 1 1/2 per cent increase. The acreage planted in corn shows a very slight increase, less than 1 per cent, but stands are generally good in all the States. Cotton is generally good in all the States, but in some localities a scarcity of field hands is reported."

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 8.—The returns from the municipal elections held in Indiana yesterday indicate general gains for the Republicans where politics figured in the contest, the victories in some places being quite unexpected. As, for instance, at Sullivan, a Democratic stronghold, while gains were made by the Democrats at Spencer, Hartford City and Edinburg. Small gains were made by the Democrats at Spencer, Hartford City and Edinburg. Small gains were made by the Democrats at Spencer, Hartford City and Edinburg. Bold Bank Robbers.
St. JOSEPH, Mo., May 8.—Three masked men entered the bank of Forest City at 1:30 o'clock yesterday and covered with revolvers President George Weber, Cashier C. J. Hunt and Wesley Sanford, who were sitting outside the counter. They compelled Cashier Hunt to go behind the counter and show them where the cash was. They took $4,500 then marched Hunt, Weber and Sanford back into the rear office and told them to stay there. As soon as the robbers had the bank the alarm was given and the police rushed to the scene. The robbers were seen in the town and the police are searching for them.

The Champion Helps a Detective to Subdue a Bad Man. By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. New York, May 8.—A desperate hand-to-hand fight occurred late Monday night on a train on the New York Central Railroad near Dobbs' Ferry, between railroad detectives and train men and a gang of toughs. After the Sullivan-Ashton sparring exhibition, 200 toughs and sporting men from New York, Yonkers and Dobbs' Ferry boarded the local train for New York. Sullivan and Ashton were on the train. After the train left Tarrytown conductor Owen Monahan began collecting fares. William Doris of Yonkers, a local prize-fighter and ex-convict, refused to surrender his ticket and an attempt was made to put him off. Detective McCabe grappled with Doris, who some fifty of Doris' friends rushed to his rescue. Doris was severely handled before he was overpowered. John L. Sullivan went to the rescue of the detective, and forcing the crowd back, told them if any fighting was to be done he would do it. The train was stopped at Dobbs' Ferry and Doris was taken off. Yesterday he was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

Police Changes.
The Police Board yesterday tried and sentenced to six months' imprisonment J. Bourne on a charge of conduct unbecoming a gentleman. James McCormack was appointed a patrolman, and several emergency specials were appointed.

Got the Drop on Him.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. GAINESVILLE, Tex., May 8.—News has just been received here from Woodford, Chickasaw Nation, thirty miles north of this city, of the killing of Theo. Redman by Bud Tinnel. Both are farmers, and reside near Woodford. It seems that there was bad blood between them for some time, and Tinnel went to Redman's house yesterday and raised a row with him, giving him notice that he would kill him before the end of the week. Upon Tinnel's leaving, Redman armed himself with a double-barreled gun loaded with buckshot, went to Tinnel's house, called him out, and as he appeared at the door Redman emptied the contents of both barrels of the gun into Tinnel's breast. He died instantly. Redman is still at large, with a posse of deputies in pursuit of him.

A Black Brute's Close Call.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. LONGVIEW, Tex., May 8.—Sylvester Kemp, colored, who so narrowly escaped being killed by his wife, Kate Kemp, who was very near being shot by a deputy sheriff who was making an arrest, for the assault made upon the wife.
